RENTAL POLICIES

Deposits are required to reserve all rental equipment. Deposits are usually 50% of the total rental charge with the balance due two weeks prior to the event.

Cancellations made less than 4 weeks prior to the event date are subject to loss of deposit. Replacement charges will apply for missing, damaged, or broken items and equipment.

Company Profile

Occasions to Celebrate is a full service event management company. We have assembled a staff of trained specialists that work together on each event. We are enthusiastic, experienced, and resourceful professionals who create just the right event for you or your organization. Our policy of step-by-step planning, combined with on-site management, and knowledge in many areas of design is further evidence of the care we take in tackling each project. Allow us to take the stress of planning an event off of you, so you can enjoy the party!

Rental rates are based on a per event basis and Occasions To Celebrate coordinating and decorating the event. There is an extra charge for set up and tear down of the event. Rental equipment is also available for clients who wish to coordinate their own events; however there may be extra charges involved. Clients wishing to tear down their own event will need to return rental items on the day following the event. Weekend event rentals need to be returned the following Monday. Rates are subject to change without notice.
